Red, White & Tuna* • September 12-14, 2013

By Jaston Williams, Joe Sears, Ed Howard • Along with Tuna's perennial favorites characters, some new Tuna denizens burst into the 4th of July Tuna High School Class Reunion. The stage is set for a show full of fireworks and fun from the land where the Lion's Club is too liberal and Patsy Cline never dies.

It's a Wonderful Life* • December 5-7, 2013

Adapted for stage by James W. Rodgers & based on the film by Frank Capra • In our American culture It's a Wonderful Life has become almost as familiar as Dickens' A Christmas Carol. The stage adaptation tells the saga of George Bailey, an Everyman from the small town of Bedford Falls, whose dreams of escape and adventure have been quashed by family obligation and civic duty. His guardian angel has to descend on Christmas Eve to save him from despair and remind him that his life has been, after all, a wonderful one.

Duck Hunter Shoots Angel* • January 30, 31 & February 1, 2014

By Mitch Albom • Written by the author of Tuesdays with Morrie, this gentle comedy tells the story of two bumbling Alabama duck-hunting brothers who think they have accidentally shot down an angel. Hailed by audiences as a comedy with a heartfelt message, the play follows the intersecting paths of the two guilt-ridden duck hunters, a depressed tabloid journalist, his reluctant photographer, their crazed boss, a shop girl at a local Gasmart, a half-man/half-alligator, and a ghost.

The Importance of Being Earnest* • March 20-22, 2014

By Oscar Wilde • Two young gentlemen living in 1890's England bend the truth in order to put some excitement into their lives. Jack Worthing invents a brother, Earnest, whom he uses as an excuse to leave his dull country life behind to visit Gwendolyn. Algvy Montcrieff decides to take the same name when he visits Cecily at Worthing's country manor. Things start to go awry when all end up together and their deceptions are discovered.

9 to 5* • May 1-3, 2014

By Collin Higgins & Dolly Parton • Take a hit movie comedy. Add the wonderful music of Dolly Parton and you have a delightful musical comedy. It's a madcap tale about three talented and resourceful women who declare war on their tyrannical boss. What ensues is a fast moving, hilarious romp filled with great songs, lively dances, and nonstop fun.
